Dr. Adnan Yahya is a full professor at the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering, Birzeit University. He received his Diploma from St. Petersburg Electro-technical University and his PhD degree from Northwestern University in 1979 and 1984 respectively. He worked at Birzeit for about 30 years, taking on both high-level administrative and teaching tasks, and had several visiting appointments at universities and research centers in the US, Germany, France and the UK. He has about 50 publications and participated in many local and International conferences. He chaired the department for two year, was the founding Dean of the Faculty of Information Technology for three years and four years as the Vice President for Academic Affairs, supervising teaching and research activities at the University. He coauthored several textbooks on Technology for the Palestinian high school system. He is a member of the ACM, the IEEE-Computer Society, a senior member of the IEEE and an ABET evaluator. His research interests include: Artificial Intelligence/Automated Reasoning, Cross Lingual Information Retrieval and Technology Education.